HENDERSON'S NURSERY

E. M. HENDERSON, Prop.

: : ATHENS, TEXAS

We present this discription list to our customers with the assurance to all of our appreciation of past business relations, and sincerely trust future dealings may be as satisfactory. To parties who have never dealt with us we would be glad to have a share of your business. Personal inspection is cordially invited.

By careful studying the following descriptions of our stock you will be able to make a better selection than you possibly could from the finest picture to be had.

Write us freely about your wants. We can supply many things not in this price list.

This price list is our only salesman; we employ no agents.

Send your orders in early before selections are broken. "First come, first served," is our motto. Do not fail to give your postoffice address and express office address if different from postoffice. Write your name plainly.

We want our customers to have their choice of varieties but they will often be more successful if selection of varieties is in part, at least, left to us. By doing this you get the benefit of our large test orchards and extensive experience in growing and handling fruit. We guarantee to deliver stock in good condition and true to name. With such delivery our responsibility ceases. We cannot prevent drouths, severe winters, rabbits and insects, so we do not replace trees that die after they are planted.

FREE

On each order amounting to $5.00 or more we pay express to your nearest express office if you are within 300 miles of us.

If your order amounts to $10.00 or more, you may select $1.00 worth of trees or plants extra. If your order amounts to $20.00 or more you may select $3.00 worth of trees or plants extra. That is, if you send $10.00 select $11.00 worth of stock. If you send $20.00 select $23.00 worth of stock. If you get trees at the nursery you save express charges and get a further reduction.

If you should happen to live 400 or 600 miles from us, just add one cent per tree to the price and the express charges will be paid by us.

Our trees are good healthy first-class stock, and each shipment is accompanied by the State Nursery Inspector's Certificate. We refer you to the First National Bank of Athens, Texas, as to our reliability and trustworthiness.

preciate it if you will send us the name of a neighbor who is interested or better still hand him your catalogue when through with it.. The following few additional letters show how well we please our customers. We pack our trees so they will reach destination in good shape.

TREES BY MAIL

In most all varieties of fruits listed in this price list I have nice healthy trees of mailing size and will send them to you post paid at price named in catalogue. Do not send order for less than $1.00 worth. These trees if well cared for will make you a fine orchard. Do not order large trees sent by mail; they are not mailable.

TO THE NEW CUSTOMERS

Or at least I hope you will prove to be a customer.

So being optimistic and looking on the bright side, I will take it for granted that you are ready to make your trial order. You will want to ask some questions. That is right. Just help yourself. Read the list carefully. It will answer most of them. And here are answers to a few more.

The fruit trees are one and two years old. They do better and grow better than older trees, besides size governs, and not age. Thrifty young trees are better than old or very large ones.

I ship by express according to your instructions and my very best judgment.

Yes, those Brunswick figs do really bear large, luscious ripe figs the first year. I have gathered them by the water bucket full off the bushes eight months old in the nursery row.

The best way to send money is by P. O. money order or express money order. If you prefer you may send one-fourth of the total amount cash with order and the trees will be shipped, balance C. O. D.

I am bending my energies to produce the best trees that can be grown and feel much encouraged at my success. It gives me pleasure to know that my efforts are appreciated, as the many complimentary letters from pleased customers and largely increased business will testify. It is a source of gratification to me to notice that my largest orders and best trade comes from parties who have known my trees the longest.

I take particular pains to care for my customers' interests and they tell me they like that kind of treatment.

Now just write down what you want and send your order along. For, after all, much talk is confusing, and I feel sure that the thing that will make and keep you my friend and customer is the satisfaction of knowing that for every dollar you have sent me you have received a dollar's worth of stock that will do you honest service.

The life of my business depends on my pleasing you.

Yours truly,
E. M. HENDERSON.

JUST "VISITING"

In the other parts of this price list I have tried the best I can to tell you accurately what I have to sell. In this part I'm just going to visit a little. Just going to see you for a little while, dear customer, this way, for it is the only way I can get around to all of you. You say so many nice things to me that I must tell you how I appreciate them.

No doubt you've looked over these pages for some testimonials, but you haven't found them. Don't like them very well. "To whom this may concern, etc." somehow doesn't strike me like a good friendly letter that a fellow just sits down and writes you because he is thinking about you, and likes the way you treat him.

A good lady in Oklahoma writes:

"Please send me another catalogue I gave my old one to a friend."

A man out at Pecos City writes as follows: "Please send me a catalogue. Mr. M——, who bought trees of you last year gave me your name."

Another at Lometa says: "My orchard I bought from you several years ago is certainly fine. My neighbors want to order trees with me."

Here are a few more sentences, all that I have room for.

Clarendon: "The little bill I ordered from you last fall came in good shape and the trees are doing nicely. They are the best rooted trees I ever saw."

Childress: "Send me your price list. Every tree and vine I ordered from you last year lived."

Sunset, Texas: "Trees received in splendid condition; highly pleased with them. The best rooted trees I ever bought."

Madisonville, Texas: "My neighbors that ordered with me last year want more trees. They were well pleased. My berries are doing well."

Here is a letter from a man who was advised not to order from Henderson's Nursery, because the trees were so cheap they would surely not be worth planting:

Alpine, Texas:

Dear Mr. Henderson:

I have been too busy to acknowledge receipt of my trees. They came in good order and are all growing. I think they were all that anyone could expect at double the price.

I am well pleased and you will hear from me again next winter.

Yours very truly,

J. C. D.

Sentinel, Okla.: "We received trees ordered from you today and are highly pleased with them. Thank you very much for your care in selection. Intend getting some more trees from you this fall, if the weather permits."
—C. B. Fields."
